

CALL FOR PAPERS

The 3rd Virtual International Multidisciplinary Conference Hosted by the Lukenya University School of Education and Social Sciences

Conference Dates: 15th-17th June 2022

THEME: Education for Sustainable Development in the Post-Covid-19 Period

Lukenya University welcomes you to the 3rd Virtual International Multidisciplinary Conference. The University is committed to advancing research, innovation, partnerships and linkages. The conference aims at bringing together people from different fields including research, academia, government and other sectors to forge the way forward in achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) outlined under Agenda 2030 by the UN General Assembly 2015, and the National Development Agendas such as Kenya's Vision 2030. We welcome diverse, dynamic groups and individuals to provide in-depth insights, and innovative, practical and actionable tools that can be employed, for more effective and efficient sustainable development efforts.

For the academia, there are certain milestones that you are expected to achieve, in order to expand your expertise. In this regard, presenting your paper and getting published in prestigious academic journals is crucial. This 3rd Virtual International Multidisciplinary Conference is a great opportunity for you to do just that .

Submit your papers for evaluation by our scientific committee. The committee adheres to the strictest evaluation standards for quality, relevance and authenticity.
